

Brick course NOT removed
 This creates an uneven threshold which is not PART M compliant
 This will NOT comply with building regulations as your only access.

Brick course removed to accept sill - 45mm inward opening This creates a level threshold and with ramped access will comply with basic access requirements for building regs

